

OUR OBJECTS.

The objects which the friends of the government, as democrats, are striving to insure and render perpetual, are—the uniform protection of every citizen, in life, property, and opinion—the simplification and equalization of the laws—the responsibility of representatives to the people—a strict interpretation of, and adherence to, the Constitution—a thorough reform of the Banking System—a limited scope of Executive authority—“Union without Consolidation—State Rights without Nullification.”

WHO ARE WITH US?

The contemporaries and the followers of JEFFERSON—the great bulk of the farmers, mechanics, agriculturalists, and other working classes. We have, then, the “bone and sinew” of the country.

WHO ARE AGAINST US?

Daniel Webster, who exerted all his powers in Congress to render the late glorious war disastrous to his country and beneficial to Great Britain—who taught the unhallowed precept that “Government should be founded upon Property”—who would not have voted to fortify the country though “the enemy were battering down the walls of the capitol”—who proclaimed revolutionary doctrines to an excited political mob in the streets of Baltimore on the Sabbath—and who has always been in the van of the New England Aristocracy. This man is against us.

The movers and advocates of the Hartford Convention—the survivors of the Massachusetts Legislature, who declared it immoral and unbecoming to rejoice at the success of our national forces when they were contending against the invaders of our soil and the despoilers of our commerce. These patent patriots are against us.

All such men as Tristram Burgess—who publicly “thanked God that he never was a Democrat,” and expressed the hope that a President would never be chosen in any other way than by the House of Representatives, (so that the people might be robbed of the privilege)—are against us.

Daniel A. White, the political Judge—the presiding officer of a political Bank festival in 1834—and once the special pleader for the Hartford Convention, is against us.

Stephen C. Phillips—(renowned for his prevaricating homilies in reference to a certain “assorted cargo”)—a high priest of Church and State doctrine—who, in opposing the amendment to the Third Article in the Bill of Rights, (see debates of Mass. Legislature, 1833,) advanced the opinion that RELIGION could not be supported without the aid of LAW. This bigoted sectarian and illiberal politician is against us.

The Hon. Mr. Dana, who, in addressing the whigs in one of their strong holds in this State, on the 4th of July, 1833, signified and scoffed at all REPUBLICAN INSTITUTIONS, and openly and unreservedly advocated MONARCHY and HEREDITARY ORDERS OF NOBILITY—this gentleman, of course, is against us.

All the apostles of BANK LICENSE and BANK LICENTIOUSNESS are against us.

The champions of IMPRISONMENT FOR DEBT are against us.

The Boston Courier—the cool and deliberate calumniator of Jefferson—the oracle that pronounced FARMERS a class unfit to be sent to the Legislature, is against us.

The Boston Atlas, which, in 1834, sneeringly called the ballot-box the Wooden Sceptre of the People, and which is constantly underrating the intelligence of the American yeomanry, is against us.

Fellow-citizens—mark the samples of men and principles we have set before you. In a few days you will be called to the polls to make known your preferences. Who can halt between two opinions?

DEMOCRATS OF MASSACHUSETTS—remain steadfast in the right cause—cultivate a proper spirit of UNION and CONCESSION, and TURN OUT, bright and early, ON MONDAY NEXT, with that unwavering energy of action which has proudly characterized your course in all your past hard contests with an entrenched Aristocracy. The events of the day will demonstrate that your progress is still ONWARD. PERSEVERE against all the crafty machinations of federal Panic plotters—and soon will

“Your foes shake like a field of beaten corn,
And hang their heads with sorrow.”

DEMOCRATS OF TENNESSEE.—To night, the Hon. John Bell will attend a federal caucus at Faneuil Hall, in the city of Boston, to aid the Hartford Convention federalists—the revilers of Jefferson—the enemies of Madison—the aiders of the English during the late war—the calumniators of the heroic Jackson, and the bitter opposers of democracy in every form—in defeating the democrats of Massachusetts at their ensuing state election! Do you approve of this conduct? Did you elect him for this purpose? Has he not abused your trust? Are you ready to rejoice with those who declared it to be “the justice of Heaven” when your parents, fathers, sisters, wives, and children were scalped and murdered by their savage enemies, and their fields desolated, and their abodes consumed by the exterminating fire of the Indian’s wrath? Will John Bell, to-night—in the federal Boston Caucus, with DANIEL WEBSTER for its Chairman—truly represent the democracy of Tennessee? Answer us we beseech thee!

ATLAS CONSISTENCY.—The Atlas quotes that clause of our State Constitution which prohibits the same person from holding the offices of Judge and Governor at the same time; and argues, thence, that a Judge cannot, or ought not, to be a candidate for Governor.

We exposed, a few days since, the hypocrisy of this federal journal, by showing that the federal party elected Levi Lincoln Governor, from the very seat now occupied by Judge Morton, and that JUDGES throughout the Commonwealth were the hottest federal electioneers. The State Constitution prohibits the same person from holding the offices of Governor and United States Senator; but the Atlas party, alias the Hartford Convention federalists, elected John Davis from the Governor’s chair to a seat in the Senate of the United States, which he now occupies.

The Salem Advertiser presents several important facts for the consideration of voters, in the following extracts:—

Do the people see with what care and scrutiny the whig party select their candidates? Do they know that they are putting forward their strongest bank men? Samuel Hubbard, a rich capitalist and bank-stockholder, is up for the Senatorship in Boston. Myron Lawrence, the gentleman who declared to the Legislature, that after a thorough investigation into his affairs, he had no hesitation in saying that the Chelsea Bank, was sound, safe and well managed, is upon the whig ticket in Hampshire county. On the strength of this ball of truth he pushed out THIRTY or FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS of its worthless promises to pay, and then FAILED. It was said at the time $100,000 would be lost by the public.

The Lynn Demo meet for organization this evening—and Jos. H. Prince, Esq. of Salem, is to address them. No one could have been more fitly chosen to set forth and enforce the great principles at stake in the present contest. We hope our Lynn friends will unite, with a determined resolution to run a democratic list of representatives right in. Go ahead, hearties.

MORTON AND FOSTER.

The people of Massachusetts know the integrity and patriotism of these distinguished citizens too well to be deceived by the torrents of federal calumny now poured out against them. The enemies of democracy mistake the indulgence of the voters, when they flatter themselves that they can label the character of MARCUS MORTON with impunity—his ability, honesty, and love of country, have been manifested too often and too strongly before the inhabitants of Massachusetts, for his traducers to succeed in their black design to injure him by their gross misrepresentations. Wherever he has been—wherever he is known—he is loved and respected by the PEOPLE—they find him a plain, upright, and fearless democrat, in precept and example—one who respects his fellow citizen for his virtues—not his wealth—and always more ready to grasp the unpromising farmer or mechanic by the hand, than the pampered aristocrat. That such a man should be assailed by the federalists is perfectly natural—if he were a cringing knave—one who would bend his knee at their bidding—wink at their wickedness, and allow them to influence his conduct in his official station, he would at once be anointed with the unction of their praise. But MARCUS MORTON is made of too stern stuff for this—he feels that he is a MAN—A FREE BORN AMERICAN, and will act like one as long as he lives—hence he is dreaded and detested by federalists, and honored and loved by democrats.

The federalists never will forgive Mr FOSTER for allowing the democrats to elect him a member of the Senate, and after getting there, proving true to those by whom he was chosen—had he turned out an apostate—a recreant to his pledges, and betrayed his friends—then he would have won the highest favor of the federalists, and probably been made President of the Board—but he acted like an honest man, and of course receives their bitterest denunciations. But federalist animosities do not possess much terror now—many a democrat has been raised to honorable distinction by them, for when the feds abuse an individual with uncommon violence, the people take it for granted that he is too firm in his honesty to be bent to the purposes of the aristocracy, and therefore worthy of public trust.

Exhibition at Salem, also.—By a card in the Salem Register it appears that the managers of the whig party at that place have effected an engagement with the (shooting) stars, John Bell & Co, from the West. They are to speak a piece for the defence, consolation and aid of speculating bankrupts and office-hunters, to-morrow evening. The nabobs of the whig cabinet at Salem, are driven to desperate shifts in order to save their bacon in Essex South. The slang oratory of their old stages, Judge Mack, Judge White, District Attorney Huntington, S. C. Phillips, &c., has become so stale and vapid that it no longer answers the purpose of stuffing for gullibles—so the managers are induced to send for strangers, to add the attractions of Western notions of their other appliances. Renegades and apostates couldn’t probably find a more congenial resting place than the camp of the whig chieftains in Salem.

The London True Sun quotes the following from an article on the Currency Question, in the British and Foreign Quarterly Review, for October:

“We cannot entertain a doubt that the tendency of the several measures of the U. S. Government, has been to render the currency of the country much more steady, uniform and sound than it would otherwise have been. Circumstances to be hereafter noticed, have since occurred, to thwart for a time the measures of the government; but when the effects of these subsequent events have passed away, the beneficial character of the measures in question, will, we doubt not, make itself manifest. The spirit of speculation, though too strong to be repressed, was somewhat checked; and had the U. S. BANK AND THE MERCANTILE PARTY fully co-operated with the government, INSTEAD OF OPPOSING IT IN EVERY POSSIBLE WAY, we have not much doubt that THE PRESENT DISASTERS MIGHT HAVE BEEN AVOIDED.”

The True Sun states this to be the conclusion to which the reviewer arrives, after a full explanation of the subject; and remarks that recent events confirm the correctness of the decision.

The friends of the Atlas know the whole history of the old federal Central Committee, and of the Hartford Convention—all of which they saw, and a part of which they were—but as the editor of the Post was only ten years old at that time, he knows no more of the events of those days than is left in the memory of his seniors and on the pages of history. Perhaps the Connecticut editor of the Atlas can tell us who burnt the blue lights, in those days.

Mr Garland, having become satisfied that it would not read very well in Louisiana, that he was helping the Boston federalists, has concluded not to appear at Faneuil Hall to-night. He is a wiser and a better man than we thought him to be—we wish him a pleasant journey to Washington.

Among the Speakers at a federal caucus in New York, the other night, was J. O. Sargeant, Esq. formerly of this city. Mr Sargeant is a graceful and pleasant speaker, but utters most horrible sentiments.

An Anti-Slavery Convention has been held in Alton, Ill. In the course of the proceeding, a motion was made and carried to take up the second resolution offered by the minority of the convention. This resolution declared in substance, that there existed no constitutional right in Congress or the States to destroy the holder’s right of property in the slave, except with the consent of the owner, and upon paying him a just equivalent therefor—that Congress had no right to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia, &c. After a protracted debate the resolution was reported, in committee of the whole, and a motion made that the report be adopted without discussion, which prevailed by a very large majority, when the convention adjourned sine die. About thirty dissatisfied members of the convention subsequently met together and formed a State Anti Slavery Society.

On our First Page will be found an “Address to the Friends of Democracy in Seitate,” and the proceedings of a Democratic Meeting in Hingham. They read well, and give us a warrant for the inference that our friends in each of the towns named are alive to a just appreciation of the merits of the Administration and the cardinal principles of democracy.

The Atlas is worried about that shirt of his—he’s afraid that it will not be dry in time for the great meeting to-night. Don’t be scared Major—if it isn’t ready in season, you can do like the rest of your party—wear a false bosom.

The Old Hartford Convention cronies will be at the Polls on Monday, every one of them who lives in Massachusetts, to vote for Everett—“Birds,” &c.

Evidence of a second Childhood.—The federal papers in New-York state that an old man, upwards of ninety years old, was tottled to the polls to vote the panic federal whig ticket.

The Rights of Women.—At a late election in Ireland, a woman whose husband had recently died, put on his clothes and a wig and voted. We dare say that a great many old women in breeches will vote for the federal ticket here on Monday.

POLICE COURT.

A Scoundrel.—Some rogues have a slight sprinkling of honor in their composition, and some have not—so that, take them by and large, they are pretty much like other people. A nameless rogue yesterday, however, carried his rascality a little further than common, even for this city. He met a little girl in the street, and requested her to take a two dollar bill to get changed, and promised her one half for the errand. The girl accomplished her errand, and received the price, and the gentleman walked off well satisfied; and, meeting with another girl, he employed her on a similar errand, which was equally successful, but it soon appeared that the two bills were counterfeit, and one of the little girls was brought to the Police Court, to answer for passing one of them. Upon a very slight investigation, it was clearly manifest, that the little creature, who was almost distracted by the dilemma in which she had been so basely placed, had been the unsuspecting victim of a villainous imposition. The officers as yet have no clue to the sharper.

At a meeting of the Democratic Republicans of Charlestown, held at the Massachusetts Hall, (Eagle Hotel,) on the evening of the 8th of Nov. pursuant to a call for all those who were “opposed to the nomination for Representatives made at the caucus held at the Town Hall, on Sunday evening last, and the ultra proceedings of that meeting,” signed Hamilton Davidson and 125 democratic voters of Charlestown, Charles Thompson, was chosen Chairman, and Andrew J. Locke, Secretary.

On motion of Mr H. Davidson, a committee of seven was raised, with instructions to nominate a committee of eleven, for the purpose of nominating a list of candidates to be supported for Representatives on Monday next. The following gentlemen were chosen for that committee:—Hamilton Davidson, Philander Ames, Elisha Burbank, Jr. T. J. Elliott, Zadock Bowman, Charles H. Davidson, Jonas Barrett, Samuel Cutter, 2d, John Colburn, Benjamin Hadley, and Osgood Hoyt. The following resolutions, offered by R. Frothingham, Jr. were unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That we hail the late Message of the President of the United States, as sound in principle, correct in sentiment, fearless in manner, and as a bond of union for the whole democracy.

Resolved, That the measure recommended in the Message, of an entire separation of Bank and State, is demanded by the condition of the times, and deserves the cordial and zealous support of every lover of his country.

Resolved, That the great whig panacea for all the evils consequent upon an enormous expansion of the credit system, and an unparalleled over-act in trade—namely, a National Bank—would be a rallying point for the aristocracy of wealth, and should be boldly and unceasingly resisted, by the democracy of numbers.

Resolved, That our present banking system is “a gross fraud upon the sweat of the brow,” as denaturalizing in its tendency, as it is ruinous in its effects, and that the untiring efforts of the Democracy should be directed to its speedy and thorough reform.

Resolved, That while we will not countenance a doctrine involving a destruction of all banks, we cordially advocate such a reformation of the whole banking system, as will preserve the community from the consequences of an irretrievable paper currency and be in accordance with the great doctrine of equal rights to all.

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the Address and Resolutions of the Convention held at Lowell, October 11th, 1837.

Resolved, That we will give our hearty support to the nomination of MARCUS MORTON for Governor, and WILLIAM FOSTER for Lt. Governor, and Leonard M. Parker, Remond Bacon, William Livingston, Francis Bowman and Joel Fuller, for Senators.

Resolved, That the candidates nominated this evening, shall consider themselves pledged, in case they accept the nomination, to sustain the principles of the address adopted at the County Convention held at Lowell, on the 11th of October last, and of the above resolutions.

On motion, it was unanimously Voted, That the committee chosen to nominate Representatives, be a Town Committee for the party assembled, for the ensuing political year, or until others are elected in their stead, and that the Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, and also the Chairman of the Middlesex Democratic County Committee be apprised of this proceeding.

The Committee reported the following list of names to be supported for Representatives: Timothy Thompson, Joseph Miller, Abijah Goodridge, Samuel Cutter 2d, Thomas Greenleaf and Jonathan Locke.

On motion, it was unanimously voted that the proceedings of this meeting, so far as relates to the organization of the party, be signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and published in the Lowell Advertiser, Concord Freeman, Boston Morning Post and Daily Advertiser.

CHARLES THOMPSON, Chairman.

South Boston.—At a meeting of the democratic citizens of South Boston, on Wednesday evening, preparatory to the coming election, it was Voted, That the following gentlemen be selected to act as a Vigilance Committee: James Dewire, John Peeler, Joseph C. Pray, George Williston, E. W. Wood, J. D. Bates, Stephen Carter, Mathew Sprague Jr, Wm. Locke, David Armstrong, Wm. V. Ball, Henry Rodgers, Warren Simpson, J. L. White, Hiram T. Foster.

And the following gentlemen were chosen to act as Vote Distributors: Seth Adams, Wm. P. Loring, C. I. T. Allen, A. E. Osborn, John P. Mann, Michael Smith, T. W. Sears, Wm. O. Blake, S. M. Burnam, James Deluce, Archibald Stinson, Samuel M. Stevens, Joshua Pratt.

Voted, That the Democratic Head Quarters be established for the present at the South Boston Hotel, in the front easterly room, and supplied with the democratic papers, where the democratic citizens of the ward, and all others who can make it convenient, are respectfully invited to attend.

Voted, That this meeting adjourn to meet with our democratic fellow citizens of Ward 12, at the Hall corner of Washington and Castle streets, on SATURDAY Evening next, at 7 o’clock.

Miss Riddle, of the St Louis Theatre, was lately presented from the side box of the Theatre, with a gold watch and chain, and a diamond ring, valued at three hundred and sixty dollars. It was presented by some of her admirers, in the name of the citizens of St Louis.—Upon the watch was this inscription:—

“Virtue et opera, St Louis, Oct. 23, 1837.”

And upon the ring:—“St Louis, 1837.”

Horrid Injustice of Crowned Heads.—The Duke of Modena, one of the meanest petty tyrants in Italy, has now found out, when too late, that several persons whom he had shot for alleged political opinions were innocent and falsely accused by his police ministers.

Eggstraordinary.—A Hen’s Egg half a foot long.—There’s a hen in Liverpool belonging to Mr John Lowe which has laid an egg seven inches and a quarter circumference by six and a half long. This fowl must have been of the ostrich species.

Robbery.—Mr Gustin, a drover, residing a few miles in the country, was robbed of a small sum of money, while returning home over the Mill Dam, on Wednesday evening. The robber presented a pistol to the breast of Mr G.

A considerable quantity of coal, stowed in a building on Bartlett’s wharf, was found to be ignited on Wednesday evening. It was removed, and the fire extinguished before any serious damage was caused.

Brown is now exhibiting at No. 20, a fine collection of his paintings, which are advertised for sale by Cunningham, on Tuesday next.

We have received a statement from Capt. Coyle, of the Steamer Portland, which we shall publish to-morrow.

It is stated that over a hundred families have left Montreal for the United States on account of apprehended disturbances in Canada.

Something like a Bull.—The New York Star says that Gen. Hernandez has ended the interminable Florida war.

Federalism going out of sight.—An opposition paper exclaims, “Knavery hide thy diminished head.”

Tremont.—Forrest’s Farewell Benefit takes place to-night. Apply early for tickets.

Boston and Leeds, in England, are the only places where smoking is prohibited by law, in the streets.

Six Brothertown Indians were drowned in the Fox river, on the 3d ult. by the capsizing of a boat in a squall.

Don Carlos, in his rapid flight from before Madrid left behind him his act of false teeth—almost an escape “by the skin of his teeth.”

Indians.—The Secretary of War has directed the practice of selling spirituous liquors to the Indians on our frontier to be discontinued, and also forbids the giving of liquor to the United States troops at the different posts.—N. Y. Post.

Werry Slim.—There is an editor in Vermont so slim, that if a harpoon was thrown at him it would be split from end to end.

The alarm of fire at half past 10 o’clock this morning, was occasioned by a defective fire-place in the store of F. S. & N. Carruth, No. 4 Long wall.—Transcript.
